

The Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

National Intelligence Council

30 September 1985

Vice Admiral and Mrs. James B. Stockdale

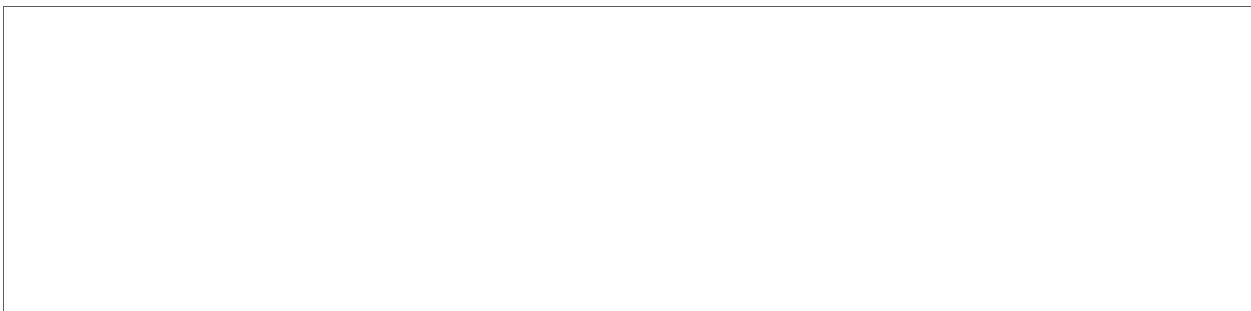

STAT

Dear Admiral and Mrs. Stockdale,

I enjoyed our conversation very much, and I'm writing to thank you for taking the time to meet with me last week in California.

Admiral, I'm glad we've opened a line of communications. As I mentioned, if at all possible I'd like you to come by here to talk with some of our people about our enemies' grasp of propaganda, and our own approach to thinking about and dealing with prisoners or hostages. If your schedule permits, we can arrange a lunch with the Director. Or perhaps we can arrange dinner at my home.

STAT

STAT

I'll be looking forward to seeing both of you again.

All best,

Herbert E. Meyer
Vice Chairman